ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

BIG CLEARANCE SALE.

A Big Saving to Consumers on Every Bill Bought of us.

After all, at every turn in the road of life there is scarcely anything so fascinating as "price." "Price" has almost all to do with everything. That is why we make it such a strong feature in the conduct of our business. That is why it is considered here first last and all the time. If we didn't make fascinating prices, we wouldn't do the immense volume of business we now enjoy, and if we didn't continue to beat all other houses in this section, right through our lines we wouldn't have so many new customers from a distance to come to see us. To those who have not yet traded with us we would say it isn't a matter of life and death to make an experiment. You may be skeptical about our grand stock and bargains, you may be slow to change from one house to another, yet you also may like to increase your savings and thereby make money. Come to see us and we will show you what the saving amounts to on Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, Clothing, Furnishing Goods and Hats.

THE LOGAN DRY GOODS COMPANY.

LANCASTER AND VICINITY.

Oh, for a hug from a polar bear.
For a couch on a block of ice.
Where the northern lights flame in the air
And the mercury's frozen in a trice.
Oh, for a wind that is sharp and keen,
For a sandwich sizzling cold,
With a slab of snow and frost between,
In the depths of a whaler's hold.
—Miss Miller, in Lou. Times.

Several first-class troupes have written for dates at the local Opera House, but no contract has yet been made with a renter. We hope they will succeed in selecting a manager who will keep order, and run the house as it should be.

Carlisle Girls in Characters.
From an exchange it is learned that the Carlisle girls are slender and delicately tinted; their hair is like  and they are without it in this or any other. Their frowns are like  and their 12345678 excite  pleasure and a desire to  then. Read this & closely and not its veracity.

Back at the Old Stand.
I have purchased Mr. Norris' meat market on Richmond street, and am once more ready to serve my old patrons and friends with the choicest meats and ice the market affords. Will give my personal attention to the business and am sure you will be pleased when trading with me. Cash paid for all kinds of produce, hides, etc. Give me a call. aug-9th T. S. ELKIN.

Accident to Col. Caperton.
Lancaster friends regret to learn that Col. Caperton, that grand citizen and noble man, of Richmond, has met with another accident. The Register says: Col. Caperton was unfortunate enough to make a misstep Sunday, and severely wrenched the shoulder that was recently dislocated. It is causing him to suffer considerable pain, and necessitates his again carrying his arm in a sling.

"Cheap Hash" Plan.
A minister down in Missouri found his people too poor to purchase hymn books, says an exchange, and being offered the same book free by a patent medicine house, provided they be allowed to insert their advertisement, ordered three dozen for the congregation. He was elated upon receiving them to find no ad in the same. The next Sunday he distributed the books, telling the people of his good fortune, and requested that they sing page 130. His chagrin may be imagined when they sang as follows: "Hark the heavenly angels sing, Johnson's pills are just the thing; the angels' voices mock and mild—two for man and one for child."

Circuit Court.
The August term of the Garrard circuit court convened Monday. Judge Sautley gave the usual charge to the grand jury and proceeded at once to clearing up the Commonwealth's docket. Hay Press.
I will run my hay press again this season. Have your hay baled now, before bad weather sets in. Call on, or address, S. H. Estes, Lancaster.

We are sending out a lot of statements this week. Please bear in mind that it costs money and takes time to send them out. Also remember that we have some creditors who stare at us like a cat looking into a rat hole.

Meeting Closed.
On account of the extremely hot weather, the meeting at the Christian church closed Sunday night. There were three additions to the membership, and much good done for the congregation.

Agree To Disagree.
Some one ought to whisper in Judge Sautley's ear that he will never get a verdict if Judge Hughes and T. J. Hatcher serve together. If one were to say it was day, the other would promptly assert that it was night. We asked them about this, and they say they got in that habit by associating with 'Lige Harris. On this point they agree.

Still on Deck.
I am again in charge of my implement business in Lancaster, and have on hand the Hancock and Avery Disc Plow, Superior and Kentucky wheat drills, Capital wagon, Disc harrows and all kinds of plows. See me and I will save you money and sell you the best on the market. When I am out of town, keys to warehouse will be left at E. C. Gaines & Co's store. They'll wait upon you. G. S. GAINES.

Hard on Cigarette Users.
Another of the great Northern railway companies have issued orders that no man will be employed who uses cigarettes. This makes four of the principal railways in this country that have adopted the rule, and indications are that many more will follow. An exchange says that the time is coming when there will be but one job for the man who smokes cigarettes. That will be to kill potato bugs with his breath. Nobody wants him any nearer the house than the potato patch.

Bowman Anderson.
Miss Lulu Anderson, of this city, and Mr. J. H. Bowman, of Vanceburg, Ky., were married at the residence of the bride's parents yesterday morning, at ten o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Elder J. L. Allen, of Danville. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives being present. The bride is the daughter of Mr. W. G. Anderson, a prominent farmer and stock dealer, of this city. She is a young lady of many fine qualities and very popular among a wide circle of friends. She was attended in a blue traveling suit, with hat to match. The groom is a well-to-do young farmer of Lewis county, and is spoken of very highly. Immediately after the ceremony they left for Vanceburg.

Assistant Conductor.
Some of the railroads are considering the advisability of abandoning the time-honored title of brakeman on passenger trains and calling him assistant conductor. The brakes on passenger trains are no longer worked by hand, but by air, and therefore, it is argued that the old title is a misnomer. "The name brakeman," said a railroad man, "has been a misnomer ever since brakemen ceased to be brakemen—that is, when air brakes came into use. A brakeman nowadays has nothing whatever to do with the brakes. He simply attends to signals, calls names of stations and otherwise assists in conducting the trains. The change to 'assistant conductor' is logical, because these men are frequently promoted to conductor. Besides, it would tend to raise the standard of the calling." This question of a change of title will probably be taken up at the next meeting of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, which is made up principally of brakemen and all the roads will be asked to adopt this change.

Prof. Patterson, of the Graded School, will conduct the teachers institute in Stanford next week. He conducted the one in Danville, and was highly spoken of by the Danville papers.

We desire to thank the many friends who were so kind to us in our recent bereavement. We appreciate it, and will always remember you. Mr. J. T. Leavell and Family.

Fell From Window.
Ed. Paul, of McKinney, fell from a second story window of a Stanford hotel and was killed. He got too hot and sat in the window to cool, but fell asleep and toppled out. Undertaker J. A. Beazley, of this city, was called to embalm the body, and tells us Paul regained consciousness for a short time and told how the accident happened.

Sweet Potatoes.
A good lady friend of THE RECORD sent us some of the best sweet potatoes we have seen this season. Capt. White says all that was lacking was a big fat 'possum to complete the bill. The potatoes are all right, but we draw the line on Brer 'Possum. It takes a good many men and a great deal of whiskey to get away with one 'possum.

For Sale, Stock of Goods.
I have a good, clean stock of goods of about $2,000, and the best stand in the county to sell goods. I will sell my stock, and the store room can be rented reasonably. This is one of the best openings for a man to sell goods that I know of. It is five miles from the nearest store and 14 miles to the nearest town. Will sell or exchange for a good farm. Call, or address Mrs. K. M. Scott, Beuna Vista, Ky. aug. 2-5t

Cases Compromised.
In the circuit court this week, the L. and N. railroad compromised the cases charging the company with failure to block the frogs of their switches. There were twelve indictments and the company paid $1,100 in compromise. "Blocking a Frog" means to place wooden blocks where the rails come together in such a manner that the brakemen catch their feet and frequently meet with serious results. The company placed these blocks, but they were stolen or carried away, it is claimed.

Kind Words for Rev. Mr. Robinson.
Rev. Leonidas Robinson is preaching some splendid sermons at the Methodist church, the one last night on the various steps necessary to be taken in a Christian life being especially fine. He is quite a young man, probably 28 or 30, but has an old head on his shoulders. His heart is enlisted in the work of his Master and his earnestness impresses his hearers so that they will remember the good things he is saying in the pulpit long after he is gone. He very truthfully said it is the duty of every church in town to assist each other in protracted meetings and begged the Methodists to put their shoulders to the wheel and assist in the meetings at the Stanford Christian, Presbyterian and Baptist churches whenever the revivals were in progress in the future. His preaching is accomplishing much good in many ways and Bro. Britt and the Methodist church did a good work in getting Bro. Robinson to come and hold the meeting.—Stanford Democrat.

The Hustonville colored fair company lost even thirty-five cents on the venture.

Monday is county court. THE RECORD will have a force six extra clerks on hand to assist in writing receipts for subscriptions.

For the year of 1901, a good two-story ten-room brick residence near the Square, in Lancaster, Ky., suitable for boarding house. For particulars, apply at once to J. M. Orand, Lancaster. aug 2-tf.

Judge Henry Noel in Town.
Judge Henry T. Noel, of Knoxville, was here last week mingling with old friends. Judge Noel is interested in a copper mine which is attracting attention all over the country. He sold quite a number of shares here, as he wanted to give his Lancaster friends a chance to reap some of the reward that is unquestionably stored in the mine.

Read The Record.
For the 'tenth time we say that you will find the time tables for the Queen & Crescent trains published in each issue of THE RECORD. Yes, it's correct, too. The paper goes to the general passenger agent every issue and his clerks see that it is right. The L. & N. table is also printed, and we will make affidavit as to its correctness, too.

Carpenter.
Mr. N. B. Carpenter died at his residence, on Danville street, Saturday night. He had been a sufferer for many years and for the last three was confined to his bed. He bore his afflictions with patience, and said he was ready for the end. His faithful wife, who has waited upon him so tenderly during his long illness, has the sympathy of the community in her great bereavement. The remains were taken to Lexington for burial.

Opens The Tenth.
The Lancaster Graded School will open its doors on the tenth of next month. Prof. Patterson says indications point to a very large attendance this term. Everything is being put in good shape for the opening. THE RECORD is asked to urge upon the parents the importance of putting their children in school at the beginning, instead of waiting several weeks. This delay causes confusion in the school after all the classes have been made up, and is otherwise detrimental. As the youngsters have nothing else to do, start them in promptly.

Eld. A. H. Moore Resigns.
Memphis Semitar:—The congregation of the Christian Church on Mississippi avenue is about to lose its esteemed pastor, Rev. Allen R. Moore, who has sent in his resignation, to take effect on September 15. Mr. Moore goes to Lancaster, Ky., where he has been called to a pulpit. For some time past his health has been far from perfect, and it is with the hope of obtaining improvement in that respect that he makes the change. In leaving Memphis Rev. Moore will carry away the high regard not only of those with whom he has come in contact in the relation of pastor and congregation, but also of all classes of people in Memphis who know him or have heard of him as a preacher of eloquence and convicting power and as a man of pleasing personality. Rev. Moore has been with the Mississippi Avenue Christian Church about three years. His successor has not been secured.

Mr. Moore since his residence in Memphis has accomplished what few pastors undertake. He has held successful revivals in his own church. As a general proposition ministers import talent to conduct prolonged meetings, but Mr. Moore has on several occasions, unaided, preached daily week in and week out, with splendid results. On one occasion there were twenty-two additions to the church and a great many professed religion who united with other churches.

Dress Making.
We have moved into the house vacated by Mr. Fuller and are prepared to furnish patterns cut to order and do sewing of all kinds. Mrs. Maggie Hobbs and Sister. aug-24-2t

Scarcity of Ice.
A small ice famine has caused much inconvenience this week. The dealers get their supply from Danville and Stanford, and they cannot, or do not, supply the demand. If the two toy plants were joined together, maybe they could, by running day and night, supply the demand.

Hon. G. G. Gilbert to Speak.
Hon. G. G. Gilbert, democratic candidate for congress, will address the citizens of Garrard at the court house Monday, court day, at 2 o'clock. Mr. Gilbert is a good speaker and a gentleman in every sense of the word. He has made a good record, and there's no disputing the fact.

Handsome Wagon.
Mr. E. W. Arnold, the hustling representative of D. H. Baldwin & Co., the piano and organ people, has just received a handsome delivery wagon, which is a model of convenience and a beauty. By the way, Mr. Arnold is meeting with great success selling instruments, and if you want a bargain in the best instruments made, see him.

Not Much Said.
The result of the Georgetown trial is not discussed much by the business men in the town. All have their opinion, but they don't hunt up some fellow to tell about it and try to make him see the matter the same way. Of course there are some, who have nothing else to occupy their valuable time, who tell how it should have been. THE RECORD takes great pleasure in saying that nearly everybody in Lancaster is employed, consequently the peace and quietude is seldom disturbed by the bursting out of street corner gasbags.

Death of Mrs. Marksburg.
After a brief illness, Mrs. Nancy Marksburg died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hughes, in this city Saturday night, about 9 o'clock. She was enjoying good health up to Saturday, the 10th, when she was stricken by paralysis, the entire left side being affected. She never rallied from the stroke, and lay unconscious until the following Saturday night, when she passed away. She would have been eighty-two years of age next November, and considering her years the length of time she lingered after the stroke is marvelous, indeed.

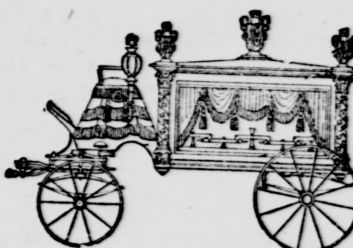

Mrs. Marksburg was born in Garrard county and lived here many years, but moved to Perryville, where she spent the latter years of her life. She was the widow of Randolph Marksburg, and belongs to one of the most widely connected families in central Kentucky. She leaves two children in this city, Mrs. Wm. Hughes, and H. A. B. Marksburg, while another daughter, Mrs. Robt. Walker, resides at Perryville. She was a Miss West, and had a great many relatives in Boyle, Mercer and Garrard counties. In early life she united with the Christian church, and was ever a faithful member thereof. She was a church member who lived up to its teachings in every sense, and never let an opportunity pass to do an act of kindness. No one was held in higher esteem than Mrs. Marksburg, and her death will be keenly felt by her church and neighbors. She was far from pretentious, and took little stock in the way some people now a days do an act of kindness. She was of that old time God-loving, God-fearing class of people who put in practice the teachings of the Bible. Funeral services were conducted in the Perryville Christian church Sunday afternoon, by Eld. Wills, of Junction City. The remains were interred in the Perryville Cemetery.

China wants peace. A message was received at Washington Monday from Li Hung Chang appealing for a cessation of hostilities and asking that Minister Conger or some other official be appointed Envoy to conduct negotiations on the part of the United States. Earl Li states that he is willing to meet representatives of the Powers at any place they may name. The Government has not made public reply. It is held, however, that China has not yet complied with Secretary Hays' conditions. It is believed that the Chinese Emperor and the Empress Dowager made their escape from Peking. Admiral Remeo reports that seven American soldiers were killed during the siege of the Peking legations.

After fifty-four minutes' deliberation, the jury in the case of Caleb Powers, found him guilty as an accessory to the murder of William Goebel and fixed his punishment at life imprisonment. The first ballot was taken upon his guilt or innocence, and the jury unanimously voted him guilty. The next ballot was as to the penalty, and resulted in eleven for life imprisonment, and one for death penalty. The one man yielded, and the jury reported. Powers bore the verdict with composure. "The verdict can not be final," he said. Motion for a new trial was made. If this is denied an appeal will be taken.

Through "respect" to the memory of C. P. Huntington, the dead millionaire, every branch of work on the entire system of railroads of which he was president, was stopped still for seven minutes, all ceasing at a specified time. As the roads extended from the Atlantic to the Pacific, many thousands of men ceased their labors and doubtless stood wondering how the old skindiff was progressing with his argument to the devil, just at that time. All this was done because the man had money. Take his coin from him, and he wouldn't have influence enough to stop a cracker wagon for half a minute.

The Democratic State Campaign Committee has declined the proposal of the Republican Campaign Committee for joint debates between Gov. Beckham and the Republican candidate for governor, Mr. Yerkes. Gov. Beckham placed himself at the disposal of the committee, but the committee thought that his duties as governor, especially during the extra session of the Legislature, would prevent a general stumping tour and that such a debate would not be "consistent with the dignity of the office nor with his duty to the people of the Commonwealth."

It would have been pleasant to us Southern outlaws to see that mob in New York City after negroes. Just imagine the sight of those saintly creatures trying to "hang a nigger." They seem to have forgotten the many mean things they have said about the Southerners on this question. We presume the newspapers up there used their old stereotyped head, "Negro Brutally Treated," that they used over many a special sent from the south.

"Brooms Will Go Up!" reads a big headline in the Jessamine Journal. The editors of the Journal are both married men, and it is strange they should publish so common an occurrence as this. There is a broom at our house that goes up every few days, and if we don't make tall tracks for another locality, it descends, through the shadow of our wing, upon our defenseless head.

It is now reported that a lot of Italians had formed a plot to assassinate President McKinley. A great cock and bull story has been published telling of the plot and how it was frustrated. If Mr. McKinley is assassinated it will be the work of home fiends. We don't suppose there is a Dag in existence who cares whether the president is dead or alive.

The newspaper boys all over the state regret Mr. Clarence Woods' resignation as editor of the Richmond Climax. Woods claims the Climax owners wanted to muzzle him, and this he would not submit to. We hope our good friend will soon be back amongst us, turning out the bright, crisp matter we all like so well to read.

Soon stump speakers will be as thick as burrs on a sheep's back. If there was ever one voter changed by a political speech, the fact has never come to light.

Mothers endorse it, children like it, old folks use it. We refer to One Minute Cough Cure. It will quickly cure all throat and lung trouble. F. P. Frisbie

Mr. G. A. & J. C. Siler have their farms advertised for sale, also stock, &c., to be sold Sept. 8.

A little child of Dave Anderson pulled a cup of hot coffee off the table on him last week, which burned him so badly that he died from the effect of it that night.

Mr. J. F. Pettus, whose illness has been mentioned in our report, died at his home Friday, at 3 p. m., the 18th inst., in the 79th year of his age, and was buried in the family cemetery, near his home, his funeral was preached by Bro. Carmiche, from Rev. 13-14. A kind good man is gone from us, we will miss him. May the God of heaven guide the family safely through life, is the prayer of one who loves them.

Miss Carpenter, of Madison county is visiting her uncle, W. H. Cummins and family, this week. Miss Kate Payne and Miss Mattie Cornin, is visiting relatives in Garrard county, this week. Miss Ella Thompson is visiting at Stanford for a few days. J. S. Anderson entertained a number of his relatives, Sunday.

MARKSBURY.

Leslie Anderson bought of James Royston, a horse for $65.

Rev. B. A. Copass delivered two excellent sermons at the Fork church Sunday night. Services every Sunday night beginning at 7 o'clock.

Mr. C. A. Robinson went to salt his cattle a few days ago, he found one of his finest dead, it was supposed to have been killed by lightning.

The following delegates from the Fork church, Revs. B. A. and J. A. Copass, and Messrs. Will Massee, F. B. Kemper, Everett Parks and David Swope, left Tuesday morning to attend the South District Association. Mr. Ebb Dickerson of Buckeye, attended preaching at the Fork church, Sunday. Miss Ruth Aldridge has been quite sick for several days. Mr. Thornton Kemper and sister, Miss Meek, of Boyle, visited J. C. Boner and family, Sunday.

GUNN'S CHAPPEL.

Wheat threshing is about over in this community. The good Lord has blessed us with a bountiful crop, some crops making as much as 25 bushels to the acre, and the corn crop is good, but has been damaged to some extent by the winds.

Your regular correspondent, Miss Edna Scott, we are sorry to hear was very ill last week, but we hope she will soon be able to resume her work as teacher. The patrons are much pleased with her.

Bro. Bivin, our pastor, will preach for us the first Sunday in September, it being his last appointment for this conference year, the church and other denominations, are much pleased with him, and hope they will send him back again.

Our Sunday school meets at 9 o'clock, prayer meeting at 10. We had a social gathering at our church last Friday, neighbors and friends about 125 in number, and the good women, God bless them, had prepared and brought their baskets filled with good things.

I thought as your correspondent was sick, I would write a short letter, hoping to see it in your next issue. ***

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap.

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Trying to quell a woman's wrath, is like sitting down on a bunch of lighted fire-crackers to prevent their going off.

Pepsin Syrup Co. November 6, '99. Dear Sirs:—I feel it my duty to write to you and let you know how much good your medicine has done for me. Twenty-three years ago I was taken with some kind of stomach trouble and I tried everything I heard of. They did me but little good. Three years ago neuralgia set in on me and I got so poor and weak that I could hardly walk—couldn't work any. My husband received a book through the mail, advertising your medicine, and he sent our little boy to the drug store to get one of your ten-cent bottles. I began to use it. It is strange to say, but it's the truth, the second dose I took gave me lots of relief. I kept on using it till I used it nearly one year and now I am nearly as strong as I used to be and can do any kind of work. I recommend it to all, for it seems to me it would cure anybody. I have gotten several to use Dr. Caldwell's Pepsin and they all say it has done them so much good. God bless Dr. Caldwell and his medicine for doing me so much good. Yours with respect, Mrs. Isabella Wheeler. Freetown, Jackson Co., Ind. Sold by B. E. McRoberts druggist. 1m

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Garrard County Teachers' Institute met in the Circuit court room on Monday of last week. After music and devotional services, the Institute organized, Miss Lusk being chairman and Prof. T. C. Cherry, of Bowling Green, Instructor. Nearly all of the forty-one districts responded to roll call. The committee on program was appointed and assigned work for the afternoon.

The subjects treated on each of the five days, a portion of them being given each day to each subject, were as follows: Nature Study, School Management, Grammar, History, Geography, Language Arithmetic, Literature, Physiology and Civil Government. Prof. Cherry gave a very instructive talk each day on Nature Study. The other subjects were assigned to certain members of, and discussed by the entire Institute. On Wednesday, Prof. Baker, of Pennsylvania, being present during the discussion of History, by request, gave a very interesting talk on the subject. Mr. Williams favored the Institute on Thursday afternoon with a most appropriate talk on Civil Government. On Friday afternoon the program was varied slightly on account of some extra work.

Miss Lusk urged the organization of the Teachers' Association throughout the county. The committee on resolutions was heard from, the choir sang "God be with you till we meet again," and the Institute adjourned. The committee submitted the following resolutions, which were adopted:

WHEREAS, God in his goodness has prolonged our lives and blessed us in our work, we first of all would return thanks to Him in humble prayer for His mercies, and pray continually that He may still continue to bless us and guide us in our work, and whereas, we submit the following resolutions as expressing our sentiments on some of the minor educational problems.

Resolved, That we endorse the county institute for teachers, but we believe it would be much better to have Congressional Institutes, covering at least four weeks time before opening schools. That we believe vocal music should be taught as a text in school. That each teacher should be required to read a portion of scripture each day to the pupils.

Resolved, That our thanks are due Miss Eliza J. Lusk for the great interest she is manifesting of popular education in Garrard county. That our thanks are due Prof. T. C. Cherry, of Bowling Green, for the excellent manner in which he has discussed the various educational subjects before the institute and we deem it to be our duty to say that we regard him as a man eminently qualified for training teachers of this great Commonwealth, and we recommend him as a model instructor.

Resolved, That we offer our thanks to Miss Grace Kinnaird for the skillful manner in which she has presided at the organ, and to Jailer Ross for administering to our various wants, and to Miss Eliza Smith, Sec'y, for her faithful work and to the program committee, and to all who have assisted in making the institute a success, and to Mr. W. L. Williams for his scholarly lecture on Civil Government.

God has seen fit in His goodness to call from our midst one of our fellow teachers, Miss Dorcas Leavell, that we hereby express our sympathy to her family, and pray that her life of purity may be an incentive to all to be constantly ready for the Master's call.

CRIMINALS DO NOT REFORM.

So Says the Old Detective, Who Cites the Case of Jim Dunlap, the Bank Burglar.

The old detective, who doesn't believe that criminals ever reform, found another example with which to sustain his contention the other day, and of course his friends, who are more charitable in their views, had to listen. Once or twice they have differed with him, and the result has been a long succession of stories from the old detective on the subject, some of which have already been printed in the New York Sun.

"It's James Dunlap this time, boys," he began. "Maybe you don't know Jim, but you will recall him when I tell some of the things that he did. Jim was one of the leading lights of the old Dave Cummings gang, and the Dave Cummings crowd was the crowd that robbed the Northampton bank of a cool million and a half in the late '70s. There was Billy Connors, now a prosperous bookmaker in this city, Shang Draper, poor old Bob Scott and Edson, who finally squealed and had them all roped in, after one of the biggest and most successful jobs ever carried out in this country."

"Well, I won't stop to tell you about the Northampton bank robbery, because it's the duty of every man to know about such a famous crime as that, anyway. What I want to talk about is Jim Dunlap, the brains of that affair, and of many another. You know that I don't think there's such a thing as a criminal reforming. I've told you about Mark Shindrun and half a dozen others, and the only one of all the old timers that's made a bluff at keeping straight is Dan Noble. Now Bob Scott and Jim Dunlap got a 30-bit piece as the result of Edson's squeal, and moved into Charlestown prison, near Boston, to serve it out. If ever two men got it hard those two did. They were young, bright and strong men, when they went in and a determined effort was made, under orders, I suppose, to break them down. It's a trick they have of killing crooks in prison, and don't look that way, because I know what I'm talking about."

"Well, Bob Scott died under the gall they gave him, but before he gave up the ghost he sent down to New York for his wife, Mary Scott, now the well-known Mary Scott Rowland, the complexion woman, and he told her that it was only a matter of days with him, and that he wanted her to transfer her interest in him, after his death, to his pal, Jim Dunlap, and to never cease working to secure a pardon for him. Mary Scott swore that she would do it, and after Bob's death, she never missed making at least one visit a month to the Charlestown prison, to see Jim, and to do all that she could to make his prison life brighter. Say, her kindness to her late husband's friend was the only ray of sunshine in his life, and it kept him alive. Furthermore, she made miserable the life of every governor of Massachusetts, with her never-ceasing pleas for the pardon of Jim Dunlap. Her fight for the man attracted universal attention and there was a great deal of sympathy for her. But Jim Dunlap was generally regarded as a man dangerous to the community in which he moved, and the police of every city in the country protested against his being pardoned."

"Mary Scott's efforts were all in vain until Gov. Russell came in. At that time Dunlap was a physical wreck. He had been in the hospital for weeks and it wasn't thought that he would live long. Mrs. Scott painted such a picture of Jim Dunlap's sufferings that it moved Gov. Russell, and after 18 years in prison Dunlap was pardoned. He came out of Charlestown a physical wreck, and I remember that there was a great sensation at the time, because of the man's great crisis and his interesting record. Mrs. Scott brought him back to New York, and when the train pulled in at the Grand Central station there was a small army of reporters at the depot to get interviews with the famous Northampton bank burglar, who had been shut up in prison for 18 years. The next day the papers were full of the story, and there was an interview with the woman who had done so much to secure his pardon, in which she said that Dunlap was broken in body and spirit, and would not live long. His remaining days, she said, would be spent in some quiet retreat. There was a whole lot more stuff written about Jim Dunlap and his penitence into the world, but greater stress was laid on his penitence for his crimes and his determination to spend his last few years of life in a decent way than anything else."

"Very little was heard of Jim Dunlap after his release, but I heard from some 'crooks' that he had entirely recovered his health. I asked them what he was doing and they only winked, so as it was not any business of mine as long as he wasn't in New York I let it go at that. Just the same I had my own views on the matter and how correct they were you will see in a minute. Not long ago Jim Dunlap was arrested in Chicago as he was entering his apartments. He had a little black bag with him, which, when opened, was found to contain a full set of finely wrought burglars' tools. There was also a box in the bag containing $128 in silver. Jim made no kick about his arrest, but went along quietly, and is now awaiting trial on a charge of having burglars' tools in his possession. Dunlap was arrested because there have been a dozen safe blowings in Chicago in the past few months, and the character of the work indicated that it had been done by an old hand. He was known to be in Chicago, because when he left New York he went there and opened a saloon. Have you any doubt that Jim Dunlap had a hand in those Chicago safe blowings? Anyway, it's perfectly clear to a normal mind that a man with a bag of burglars' tools, especially when it happens to be a man who has had 40 years' experience as a crackman, is a crook and not a man of good intentions. That's the point I want to make."

"I tell you they don't reform, not a one of them. If 18 years in the toughest prison in the country, and friends and opportunities such as few ex-convicts have, won't reform a man, nothing will. Jim Dunlap had all of these things, and yet the monkey's around at his old tricks, when he's a gray-haired old man, and sure to be nailed sooner or later. No, sir, there's no such thing as reforming a crook."

The official statistics of the wheat crops of the world for 1899-1900 have just been compiled by the Department of Agriculture. They show that in the countries of the Southern Hemisphere, where wheat crops are commonly included in statements of the world's wheat crops, the production will hardly fall less than 160,543,000 bushels. This is 10,000,000 bushels short of last year's production. Australia and Chili are the only countries showing any material reductions.

A remarkable story comes to us of a year's work done by a couple of Bloomfield township children. Notwithstanding the fact that he is an invalid, T. J. Duncan rented 190 acres of wheat ground last fall, and his children, a girl 16 years of age and a boy 15 years of age, plowed the ground with riding plows, the girl harrowed it and the boy followed with a drill. A man was hired to run the harrow, the children doing most of the balance of the work. The threshing was completed last week and the 190 acres yielded 4,000 bushels of 61-pound wheat. Beloit (Kan.) BLOOD POISON.

In some cases the external signs of Contagious Blood Poison are so slight that the victim is firmly within the grasp of the monster before the true nature of the disease is known. In other cases the blood is quickly filled with this poisonous virus and the swollen glands, mucus patches in the mouth, sores on scalp, ulcers on tongue, and throat, eruptions on skin, copper colored spots, and falling hair and eyebrows leave no room for doubt, as these are all unmistakable signs of Contagious Blood Poison.

Doctors still prescribe mercury and potash as the only cure for Blood Poison. These poisonous minerals never yet made a complete and permanent cure of Contagious Blood Poison. They drive the disease back into the system, cover it up for a while, but it breaks out again in worse form. These powerful minerals produce mercurial rheumatism and the most offensive sores and ulcers, causing the joints to stiffen and finger nails to drop off. Mercury and potash make wrecks, not cures, and those who have been dosed with these drugs are never able to get free from aches and pain.

S. S. S. acts in an entirely different manner, being a purely vegetable remedy; it forces the poison out of the system, and instead of tearing down, builds up and invigorates the general health. S. S. S. is the only antidote for this specific virus, and therefore the only cure for Contagious Blood Poison. No matter in what stage or how hopeless the case may appear, even though pronounced incurable by the doctors, S. S. S. can be relied upon to make a rapid, permanent cure. S. S. S. is not a new, untried remedy; an experience of nearly fifty years has proven it a sure and unfailing cure for this disease. It is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known.

Mr. R. L. Myers, 10 Mulberry St., Newark, N. J., says: "I was afflicted with a terrible blood disease, which was in spots at first, but afterwards spread all over my body. These soon broke out into sores, and it is easy to imagine the suffering I endured. Before I became convinced that the doctors could do me no good I had spent a hundred dollars, which was really thrown away. I then tried various patent medicines, but they did not reach the disease. When I had finished my first bottle of S. S. S. I was greatly improved, and was delighted with the result. The large, red spots on my chest began to grow paler and smaller, and before long disappeared entirely. I regained my lost weight, became stronger, and my appetite improved. I was soon entirely well, and my skin as clear as a piece of glass."

A Timely Sermon.

Sunday morning, August 19th, Rev. B. A. Copas, preached at the Forks Baptist church on "Law and Order from the Bible Stand-point." He dwelt especially upon the sins of unlawful whisky selling and false swearing. The text chosen was, "Cry aloud and spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and declare unto my people their transgressions and to the house of Jacob, their sins, Isaiah, 58:1."

He said in part, "Several of the fathers and mothers of this county have asked me to preach on this theme. And I protest, in the beginning, to all who hear or who may read the sermon that the speaker has in mind solely the glory of God and the Salvation of men. Circuit court is coming when justice will be either meted out to offenders, or defeated. I desire to lend the influence of my voice to those God given blessings, law and order. The situation in many parts of our state with reference to lawlessness in certain matters is too well known to need comment, and there is no need to comment upon the fact, that little effort is being made in many places to enforce the law upon unlawful whisky sellers and those who sweat falsely as a result of their connection with that business."

In many parts of Kentucky the officers of the law are either blind, cowards or corrupt men. The same may be said of the citizens at large, or else they are indifferent to the highest interest of their state. In view of these facts let us now consider:

1. The relation of "blind tiger" proprietors and false swearers to law and order. I make up here to give you a general statement, that they are outlaws of the most dangerous type. The bible teaches obedience to existing law, be it good or bad. "Be subject to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the king as supreme unto governors." 1st Peter, 2:13. A man has the right to law, but has no right to violate it while it is in force.

One of the dangerous tendencies in Kentucky today is that total disregard for laws—game laws, election laws, commercial laws, and social and moral laws are knowingly and openly violated. Our lawless habits and outlaws that we are not trying to apprehend or suppress—outlaws, in some respects more dangerous than the murderer and the highwayman. See the unlawful liquor seller. His business is bad enough when he acts under the forms of the existing law, but he adds to his business the crime of being an outlaw. He shamefully violates the laws upon our books. As an outlaw he ruins the health of the community of thousands of the men of our country. As such, he robs homes of needed money, and husbands and fathers, and sons, yea, he in some instances robs the cause of Christ of workers and means to carry on the work, and we permit the law to go unenforced against this most dangerous outlaw.

Out of this curse has grown another class of outlaws more dangerous if possible than the former. I refer to false swearing in order to protect the whisky outlaw. Ask any truthful grand jurymen and he will tell you that men are watched, that they are seen to enter whisky dens, that they come before the jury with whisky on their breath and swear they have never been to such a place and know nothing about it. Outside of the jury room they will tell you that a choice of telling a lie on the "chute" or swearing a lie before the jury, and that they prefer the latter. They thus perjure themselves, make themselves outlaws and become liable to the penitentiary. This is one of the most productive schools of crime on earth. It begets disregard for all truthfulness and disregard for any law. It is a solemn thing to take an oath and then testify. The witness either places his hand on a bible or lifts his hand to heaven, and swears to tell the "truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, to the best of his knowledge, so help him God." The outlaw who will violate such an oath renders himself a life unsaved, and destroys the very foundations of our social and religious life.

Out of the two foregoing crimes a third arises: Namely, that of not enforcing or evading the law, by those who should be its keepers. Officers, duly or unduly elected, cannot, or will not enforce the law. Sometimes they are elected to "rink at" such things; sometimes public sentiment makes them afraid; sometimes cannot, or do not get a jury that will indict or convict. It is a weighty responsibility before God and men to be an officer of the law. He takes a solemn oath to faithfully execute to the best of his ability his office according to law. The man who fails to live up to that oath is a perjured man and an outlaw most dangerous to society and state.

It is a solemn duty, that of serving on a grand jury. He swears that he "will diligently inquire of and present all treasons, felonies and misdemeanors, of which he has knowledge, or may receive information." An ex-whisky seller once told me that a part of his whisky business was to watch out and pack the juries at every court. To do this he had to have his "pull" on the whole jury system. Another form of lawlessness is the evasion of law. Physicians and druggists enable men to get liquor under forms of law, while the spirit of the law is being violated.

Physicians give out signed prescriptions, men can fill them out to suit themselves. Druggists sell on such prescriptions. The physician who will do this is an outlaw and a disgrace to
